

At CBT Psychology for Personal Development, we are looking to add a talented, experienced and passionate couple and family therapist to our growing team of established clinicians.

We provide evidence-based psychological treatment to children, adolescents, adults, couples and families. The ideal candidate must be independent, driven, collaborative, and enhance our friendly, connected, and positive minded group of professionals.

What we offer:

- Part-time or full-time work
- Competitive compensation
- A varied caseload matching the skills and preferences of the clinician
- In-house administrative assistants who answer calls and schedule intake appointments
- Individual consultations with our Clinical Director
- Supportive team environment
- Comfortable offices with natural light
- Free parking and convenient access to public transportation

We require training and experience in Couples Therapy using therapeutic approaches such as Emotion Focused Couple Therapy, the Gottmans' Method, Terry Real Relational Life, The Developmental Model for Couples Family Systems, CBT for Couples and others.

Education:

Clinical psychologists or Psychologists in Supervised practice
Ph D students after completion of their internship.
Registered Psychotherapists
Social Workers

We are located in a beautiful area of Thornhill, on Yonge St. with easy access to public transportation and free parking at the back of the building.
